

The FCC should not consider implementing any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law, I am so glad that my phone doesn't ring all day long from people wanting to sell me things I don't want or need, now when I answer my phone it is family or friends.